THE COMMEMORATION OF BENEFACTORS

THE INTROIT sung by the Choir

Beati quorum via integra est:
qui ambulant in lege Domini.

*Blessed are those that are undefiled in the way:
and walk in the law of the Lord.*

Words: Psalm 119 v. 1

Music: Charles Villiers Stanford (1852–1924)

All stand at the entry of the Choir and Clergy

Remain standing for THE COMMEMORATION read by the Dean of Chapel

According to our annual custom let us now commemorate thankfully, before Almighty God, our Founder and Benefactors, by whose noble liberality this our College has been established and enlarged for the promotion of religion, learning, education, and research.

Let us first remember KING EDWARD II who on the seventh day of July 1317 established King's Hall, which was incorporated and further endowed by King Edward III, some twenty years later. Let us also remember HERVEY DE STANTON, Chief Justice and Chancellor of the Exchequer to King Edward II, who on the Eve of St Michael in 1324 founded Michael House.

But let us chiefly remember KING HENRY VIII, to whom these two ancient houses surrendered their charters and property in 1546. On the nineteenth day of December of the same year he founded, on their sites and with their buildings, a College of letters, sciences, philosophy, godliness, and sacred theology, to the glory and honour of Almighty God and the Holy and Undivided Trinity, for the amplification and establishment of the Christian and true religion, the extirpation of heresy and false opinion, the increase and continuance of divine learning and all kinds of godliness, the knowledge of languages, the education of youth in piety, virtue, discipline, and learning, the relief of the poor and destitute, the prosperity of the Church of CHRIST, and the common good and happiness of his kingdom and subjects. He endowed the same by granting to the Master, Fellows, and Scholars thereof the revenues of King's Hall and Michael House, adding thereto much derived from the dissolved monasteries. At the same time, for the common benefit of the University, he assigned place and maintenance in this his College to three public Professors, for Divinity and for the Hebrew and Greek languages, whom he had himself lately established.

Let us also name QUEEN MARY who, in furtherance of her father's purpose, added largely to the endowment of his foundation, and supported the building of this Chapel; and QUEEN ELIZABETH who supported its completion.

Next to these our Royal Founder and Benefactors, we commemorate all those who by their generosity have secured for us the stately and spacious buildings of this College; or have augmented the Foundation especially for the sake of the establishing of Fellowships, the maintenance of Scholars, the endowment of prizes or the promotion of research; or who have, of their liberality, made gifts of manuscripts and books to the Library, or bequeathed funds for general purposes in the College, or who have beautified this place by gifts of pictures, plate, and statues.

These benefactors are too numerous to name, but we should commemorate the most generous of them all, SIR WILLIAM GEORGE PEARCE, Baronet, who by his bequest of 1907 substantially increased the endowment of the College.

Amongst our recent benefactors we remember in particular:

LAURIE FREDERICK FOX
further bequest for General Purposes

In memory of HARRY RICHARDSON CRESWICK
further bequest for the Rare Book Fund

RICHARD CORNELIUS MACCORMAC
further bequest for General Purposes

BRIAN CROSSLAND CUBBON
bequest for General Purposes

BRIAN J RIDGEWELL
bequest for General Purposes

REGINALD KNIGHTLEY ORLEBAR
further bequest for General Purposes

BETTY HILL
bequest for the Library

DOROTHY HEILBRONN
bequest for the Heilbronn Fund

CHRISTOPHER N CROFTS
bequest for General Purposes

JOHN W CASSELS
bequest for General Purposes

ANTHONY ANSCOMBE
bequest for Student Support

GEORGE I HARLEY
bequest for General Purposes

Lastly, while we thus remember before God those who have enriched us of their substance, it behoves us also to commemorate those other benefactors, an unnumbered multitude, who by achievement in Literature, Science, Philosophy, and the Arts, or by patient continuance in well-doing, have brought honour and good repute to this House; and more especially those fallen in war whose names are written on these walls. For it is meet that we should have these also in remembrance, celebrating them in our praises, and having them in honour.

And let us finally recall with thanks, and commend to God, those of our Society whom death has taken from us in the year past:

MR EUGENIO POLGOVSKY EZCURRA

PROFESSOR ALAN BAKER

Grant, O Lord, that having in remembrance all those by whose beneficence we are here established, we may use aright these gifts we have received, to the honour and glory of this House and thy Name.

Amen.

PSALM 122 sung by the Choir

I was glad when they said unto me:
We will go into the house of the Lord.

I Our feet shall stand in thy gates: O Jerusalem.

Jerusalem is built as a city: that is at unity in itself.

For thither the tribes go up, even the tribes of the Lord:
to testify unto Israel, to give thanks unto the Name of the Lord.

For there is the seat of judgement:
even the seat of the house of David.

O pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
they shall prosper that love thee.

Peace be within thy walls:
and plenteousness within thy palaces.

For my brethren and companions' sakes:
I will wish thee prosperity.

Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God:
I will seek to do thee good.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son:
and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be:
world without end. Amen.

Music: Herbert Howells (1892–1983)

THE LESSON read by the Senior Bursar

Let us now praise famous men, and our fathers that begat us. The Lord hath wrought great glory by them through his great power from the beginning. Such as did bear rule in their kingdoms, men renowned for their power, giving counsel by their understanding, and declaring prophecies: leaders of the people by their counsels, and by their knowledge of learning meet for the people, wise and eloquent in their instructions: such as found out musical tunes, and recited verses in writing: rich men furnished with ability, living peaceably in their habitations: all these were honoured in their generations, and were the glory of their times. There be of them, that have left a name behind them, that their praises might be reported.

And some there be, which have no memorial; who are perished, as though they had never been; and are become as though they had never been born; and their children after them. But these were merciful men, whose righteousness hath not been forgotten. With their seed shall continually remain a good inheritance, and their children are within the covenant. Their seed standeth fast, and their children for their sakes. Their seed shall remain for ever, and their glory shall not be blotted out. Their bodies are buried in peace; but their name liveth for evermore. The people will tell of their wisdom, and the congregation will shew forth their praise.

THE ANTHEM sung by the Choir

We praise thee, O God: we acknowledge thee to be the Lord. All the earth doth worship thee, the Father everlasting. To thee all Angels cry aloud: the Heavens, and all the Powers therein. To thee Cherubin and Seraphin continually do cry, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth; heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of thy glory.

The glorious company of the Apostles praise thee. The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise thee. The noble army of Martyrs praise thee. The holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge thee; the Father of an infinite Majesty; thine honourable, true and only Son; also the Holy Ghost, the Comforter.

Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ. Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father. When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man, thou didst not abhor the Virgin's womb. When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death, thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers. Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the glory of the Father. We believe that thou shalt come to be our Judge.

We therefore pray thee, help thy servants, whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood. Make them to be numbered with thy Saints in glory everlasting. O Lord, save thy people, and bless thine heritage. Govern them, and lift them up for ever. Day by day we magnify thee; and we worship thy Name ever world without end. Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin. O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us. O Lord, let thy mercy lighten upon us, as our trust is in thee. O Lord, in thee have I trusted: let me never be confounded.

Music: Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872–1958)

ADDRESS IN COMMEMORATION OF BENEFACTORS
given by a Fellow or another Member of the College

Dr Christopher Morley, Secretary of Council

THE PRAYERS led by a Chaplain

Let us pray.

All kneel or sit

In the words our Saviour taught us, we are bold to say:

Our Father which art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
in earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive them that trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

O holy blessed and glorious Trinity, God Three in One,
have mercy upon us: prosper with thy blessing this College which is called by thy name: and grant that all its members, both here and elsewhere, may so live and labour that in the power of the Spirit and through faith in the Son they may enter into their true heritage as children of the Father in Heaven, to whom be all glory and honour, now and for ever.

Amen.

All sit

THE ADMISSION OF FELLOW BENEFACTORS

The Master says

We have commemorated those benefactors who are departed; we now gratefully acknowledge before God the generosity of benefactors still living. In particular we acknowledge the gifts of
