INTROIT & KYRIE sung by the choir

Requiem æternam dona eis Domine: et lux perpetua luceat eis.
Te decet hymnus, Deus in Sion: et tibi reddetur votum in Jerusalem; exaudi orationem meam, ad te omnis caro veniet.
Kyrie eleison. Christe eleison. Kyrie eleison.

*Grant them eternal rest, O Lord, and may everlasting light shine on them. A hymn becomes you, O God in Zion, and to you shall a vow be repaid in Jerusalem. Hear my prayer; for all flesh shall come to you.
Lord have mercy. Christ have mercy. Lord have mercy.*

THE PREPARATION

The priest says

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts be open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

THE SUMMARY OF THE LAW

The priest says

Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ saith: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Ye that do truly and earnestly repent you of your sins, and are in love and charity with your neighbours, and intend to lead a new life, following the commandments of God, and walking from henceforth in his holy ways; Draw near with faith, and take this holy Sacrament to your comfort; and make your humble confession to Almighty God, meekly kneeling upon your knees.

Almighty God,

Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

Maker of all things, Judge of all men;

We acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness,

Which we, from time to time, most grievously have committed,

By thought, word, and deed, against thy Divine Majesty,

Provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against us.

We do earnestly repent, and are heartily sorry for these our misdoings;

The remembrance of them is grievous unto us;

The burden of them is intolerable.

Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, most merciful Father;

For thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake,

Forgive us all that is past;

And grant that we may ever hereafter

Serve and please thee in newness of life,

To the honour and glory of thy Name;

Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all them that with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him; Have mercy upon you; pardon and deliver you from all your sins; confirm and strengthen you in all goodness; and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

THE COLLECT FOR REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

Almighty and everlasting God, who dost govern all things in heaven and earth; Mercifully hear the supplications of thy people, and grant us thy peace all the days of our life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

THE EPISTLE

The Epistle is written in the First Chapter of Philippians, beginning to read at the third verse.

I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy, For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now; Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ: Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace. For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ. And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment; That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ. Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

Here endeth the Epistle.

THE GRADUAL sung by the choir

Pie Jesu, Domine, dona eis requiem, sempiternam requiem.

Merciful Jesus, Lord, grant them rest, everlasting rest.

THE GOSPEL

The Holy Gospel is written in the 18th Chapter of St Matthew, beginning to read at the 21st verse.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven.

Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants. And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents. But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, which owed him an hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest. And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt. So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done. Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me: Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow servant, even as I had pity on thee?

And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him. So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

Here endeth the Gospel.

Praise be to thee, O Christ.

All turn East and say THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
And of all things visible and invisible:
And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God,
Begotten of his Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of Light, Very God of very God, Begotten, not made,
Being of one substance with the Father,
By whom all things were made:
Who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven,
And was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary,
And was made man,
And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate.
He suffered and was buried,
And the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures,
And ascended into heaven,
And sitteth on the right hand of the Father.
And he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead:
Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost,
The Lord and giver of life,
Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son,
Who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified,
Who spake by the Prophets.

And I believe one Catholick and Apostolick Church.
I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins.
And I look for the Resurrection of the dead,
And the life of the world to come.
Amen.

THE PRAYERS

Almighty and eternal God, we humbly beseech thee to inspire continually the universal Church with the spirit of truth, unity and concord; that all who confess thy holy name may agree in the truth of thy holy word, and live in unity and godly love.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

Give grace, O heavenly Father, to all bishops, priests and deacons, that they may both by their life and doctrine set forth thy true and lively word, and rightly and duly administer thy holy sacraments.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

To all thy people give thy heavenly grace; and especially to this congregation here present, that they may serve thee in holiness and righteousness all the days of their life.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

We beseech thee, O Lord, to direct with thy heavenly wisdom those who rule over the nations of the world; bless thy servant Charles our King and all who exercise authority under him, that thy people may be faithfully and justly governed.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

Of thy goodness, O Lord, help and comfort all those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness or any other adversity, granting them a happy issue out of all their afflictions.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

We commend to thy gracious keeping, O Lord, all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear, beseeching thee to grant them everlasting light and peace.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

We bless thy holy name for the grace and virtue declared in the Blessed Virgin Mary, St Michael and in all thy saints. Grant that we, rejoicing in their fellowship and following their good examples, may be partakers with them of thy heavenly kingdom.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

We pray for the repose of the souls of all those who have died in war and battle, especially those who belonged to this College and University, and those to whom we ourselves are bound. As is our annual custom, we now remember by name twenty members of this College who died in war and whose names are inscribed around this chapel.

Twenty names from the Roll of Honour are read out

May they rest in peace.

And rise in glory.

Merciful Father, accept these prayers for the sake of thy Son

our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen.

THE COMMUNION

THE OFFERTORY sung by the choir

Domine Jesu Christe, Rex gloriæ, libera animas omnium fidelium defunctorum de pœnis inferni, et de profundo lacu, libera eas de ore leonis, ne absorbeat eas tartarus, ne cadant in obscurum. Sed signifer sanctus Michael repræsentet eas in lucem sanctam, quam olim Abrahæ promisisti, et semini ejus. Hostias et preces tibi Domine laudis offerimus, tu suscipe pro animabus illis, quarum hodie memoriam facimus; fac eas, Domine, de morte transire ad vitam. Quam olim Abrahæ promisisti et semini ejus.

Lord Jesus Christ, King of glory, deliver the souls of all the faithful departed from the pains of hell and from the deep pit, deliver them from the lion's mouth, and do not let them fall into darkness, or let the black abyss swallow them up. But let the holy standard-bearer Michael represent them in the holy light, as once thou promised to Abraham and to his seed. We offer unto thee, O Lord, this sacrifice of prayer and praise. Receive it for those souls whom we commemorate today. Grant unto them, Lord, to cross over from death into life, which once thou promised to Abraham and to his seed.

All stand

The Lord be with you;
and with thy spirit.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up unto the Lord.

Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.
It is meet and right so to do.

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty,
that we should at all times, and in all places,
give thanks unto thee, O Lord, Holy Father, Almighty, Everlasting God.

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven,
we laud and magnify thy glorious Name;
evermore praising thee, and singing,

Sanctus, sanctus, sanctus Dominus Deus Sabaoth. Pleni sunt caeli et terra gloria tua. Hosanna in excelsis. Benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini. Hosanna in excelsis.

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

All sit or kneel

We do not presume
to come to this thy table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness,
but in thy manifold and great mercies.
We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy table.
But thou art the same Lord, whose property is always to have mercy:
Grant us therefore, gracious Lord,
so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ,
and to drink his blood,
that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body,
and our souls washed through his most precious blood,
and that we may evermore dwell in him,
and he in us. Amen.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of thy tender mercy didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to suffer death upon the Cross for our redemption; who made there (by his one oblation of himself once offered) a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction, for the sins of the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death, until his coming again: Hear us, O merciful Father, we most humbly beseech thee; and grant that we receiving these thy creatures of bread and wine, according to thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ's holy institution, in remembrance of his death and passion, may be partakers of his most blessed Body and Blood: who, in the same night that he was betrayed, took Bread; and, when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, Take, eat, this is my Body which is given for you: Do this in remembrance of me. Likewise after supper he took the Cup; and, when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of this; for this is my Blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many for the remission of sins: Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me.

Amen.

The clergy, servers and choir receive communion, after which all are welcome to come forward. Those who are baptised and receive communion in their own churches are welcome to receive communion here; those who do not receive communion are welcome to come forward for a blessing.

During the distribution, the choir sings

AGNUS DEI

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, dona eis requiem, requiem sempiternam.

*Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world,
grant them rest, everlasting rest.*

LUX AETERNA

Lux æterna luceat eis, Domine, cum sanctis tuis in æternum, quia pius es. Requiem æternam dona eis Domine, et lux perpetua luceat eis.

May eternal light shine on them, Lord, with thy saints for ever, because thou art merciful. Grant them eternal rest, O Lord, and may perpetual light shine upon them.

LIBERA ME

Libera me, Domine, de morte æterna, in die illa tremenda, quando cœli movendi sunt et terra, dum veneris judicare sæculum per ignem. Tremens factus sum ego, et timeo, dum discussio venerit, atque ventura ira. Quando cœli movendi sunt et terra. Dies illa, dies iræ, calamitatis et miseræ, dies illa, dies magna et amara valde. Dum veneris judicare sæculeum per ignem. Requiem æternam dona eis Domine, et lux perpetua luceat eis. Libera me, Domine...

Deliver me, Lord, from everlasting death on that dreadful day, when the heavens and the earth shall be moved, and thou shall come to judge the world by fire. I quake with fear and tremble, awaiting the day of judgement and the wrath to come, when the heavens and the earth shall be moved. That day, the day of wrath, of calamity and misery, that day, the great and most bitter day, when you will come to judge our age with fire. Grant them eternal rest, O Lord, and may everlasting light shine on them. Deliver me, Lord...

Remain seated or kneeling

AFTER COMMUNION

Our Father,
who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come; thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The priest says

O Lord and heavenly Father, we thy humble servants entirely desire thy fatherly goodness mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving; most humbly beseeching thee to grant, that by the merits and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, and through faith in his blood, we and all thy whole Church may obtain remission of our sins, and all other benefits of his passion.

And here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and lively sacrifice unto thee; humbly beseeching thee, that all we, who are partakers of this holy Communion, may be fulfilled with thy grace and heavenly benediction. And although we be unworthy, through our manifold sins, to offer unto thee any sacrifice, yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and service; not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offences, through Jesus Christ our Lord; by whom, and with whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, all honour and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end.

Amen.

Almighty and ever-living God,
we most heartily thank thee,
for that thou dost vouchsafe to feed us,
who have duly received these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favour and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, which is the blessed company of all faithful people;
and are also heirs through hope of thy everlasting kingdom, by the merits of the most precious death and passion of thy dear Son.

And we most humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace,
that we may continue in that holy fellowship,
and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost,
be all honour and glory,
world without end. Amen.

Bring us, O Lord God, at our last awakening into the house and gate of heaven, to enter into that gate and dwell in that house, where there shall be no darkness nor dazzling,
but one equal light;
no noise nor silence, but one equal music;
no hopes nor fears, but one equal possession;
no ends nor beginnings, but one equal eternity;
in the habitations of thy glory and dominion, world without end.

Amen.

May they rest in peace.

Amen.

The choir sings

In Paradisum deducant Angeli, in tuo adventu suscipiant te Martyres, et perducant te in civitatem sanctam Jerusalem.
Chorus angelorum te suscipiat, et cum Lazaro quondam paupere æternam habeas requiem.

*May Angels lead you into Paradise; may the Martyrs receive you at your coming and lead you into the holy city of Jerusalem.
May a choir of angels receive you, and with Lazarus, once a pauper, may you have eternal rest.*

All stand as the choir and clergy leave in silence

The retiring collection is for the Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal
